

BYLAWS
OF THE
BLUEMONT CIVIC ASSOCIATION
as Adopted, October, 1994 and as Amended, May 2013

ARTICLE I

Name

The Arlington County, Virginia neighborhoods in and around the Arlington Traditional School, Balls Crossing, Bluemont Park, Bon Air Park, Fields Park, and Lacey Woods Park, all within the boundaries of the Association identified in Article II of these bylaws, freely enter into this association of neighborhoods for the benefit of all neighborhood residents and businesses. This Association, formerly know as the Stonewall Jackson Citizens Association, shall henceforth be known as the Bluemont Civic Association. The name Bluemont Civic Association is derived from the Bluemont Division of the Washington and Old Dominion Railroad line that once served the neighborhoods from Lacey Station in Ballston to Bluemont Junction at Four Mile Run.

ARTICLE II

Boundaries

The boundaries of the Association from west to east are as follows: the Four Mile Run stream bed, Interstate Route 66, North Jefferson Street, Washington Boulevard, North George Mason Drive, Interstate Route 66, Washington Boulevard, North Glebe Road, and North Carlin Springs Road.

ARTICLE III

Objective

The objective of the Association is to provide a forum for its members to respond to issues of common concern, promote involvement in neighborhood activities, and further the interests of the neighborhood within the Arlington County community.

ARTICLE IV

Members

Section 1. Individual Membership. Any adult who owns or rents real property or resides within the Association boundaries or in a neighborhood adjacent to the Association boundaries, but not within the boundaries of another neighborhood citizens or civic association, is eligible for membership in the Association. An adult is any person who has attained the age of sixteen (16) years. Individuals shall have one (1) vote in any matter before the Association membership.

Section 2. Household Membership. The members of a household may elect to join the Association under a single household membership. Each household member who qualifies as an individual members shall have full voting rights and privileges, except that households shall have no more than two (2) votes in any matter before the Association membership.

Section 3. Business membership. A business located within the Association boundaries may obtain a membership equivalent to an individual membership. A business membership shall have one (1) vote in any matter before the Association membership.

Section 4. Honorary Membership. The Executive Board may confer honorary memberships on individuals, even if they are otherwise ineligible for membership. Honorary members shall receive newsletters and be entitled to participate in the affairs of the Association, but they shall not be required to pay dues nor have the right to vote or to hold elected office.

Section 5. Admission to Membership. Any person eligible for membership under this article shall become a member in good standing upon payment of the annual Association dues to the Treasurer.

ARTICLE V

Dues

Section 1. Payment of annual dues conveys membership for the Association fiscal year. The Association fiscal year is January 1 through December 31. The Association dues are fifteen (15) dollars per annum, if paid on or before the end of the year. If a member joins after the beginning of the year, but before September, dues shall be prorated to the closest whole dollar amount, based on the portion of the year remaining. For example, membership for 9 months shall cost 11 dollars ($15 \times . = 11.25$). After September, dues shall be fifteen (15) dollars plus the closest whole dollar amount, based on the portion of the year remaining. For example, membership for October through December of the following year shall cost nineteen (19) dollars ($15 + 15 \times . = 15 + 3.75$) and shall cover membership through the following year. The dues are charged per membership, except for honorary members.

Section 2. During the fiscal year, the Executive Board may change the dues for the following year to avoid an undue deficit or surplus in the Treasury the following year. In such cases, the dues amount stated in this Section of the Bylaws must be amended before the end of the following year, or the dues shall revert to the amount shown here.

ARTICLE VI

Officers

Section 1. The officers of the Association shall be a President, a First Vice-President, a Second Vice-President, a Secretary, a Treasurer and the Neighborhood Conservation Advisory Commission (NCAC) Representative. No one person may serve in two offices at one time, with the exception that the offices of First Vice-President and Second Vice-President may be combined and held by one person should the members at the Annual Meeting so desire. These officers shall perform the duties prescribed by these Bylaws and by the parliamentary authority adopted by the Association.

Section 2. Any member in good standing is eligible to hold office.

Section 3. The President and First Vice-President shall serve no more than three (3) consecutive terms in the office to which each is elected. Should the office of the First Vice-President be combined with the office of the Second Vice-President, the term shall commence with the election of the person holding the combined office.

Section 4. At a General Meeting, prior to the annual meeting, a Nominating Committee of not less than three (3) members in good standing shall be elected by the members present. It shall be the duty of this committee to nominate candidates to be elected at the Annual Meeting in June for each Association office including Association delegates to the Arlington County Civic Federation. The Nominating Committee may make multiple nominations for the same office. If possible, the Nominating Committee shall publish their nominations in a newsletter prior to the June Annual meeting. Nominations for Association officers and delegates, including self nominations, shall be permitted from the floor up to and including the Annual Meeting. Candidates must agree to serve if elected.

Section 5. The Association shall elect officers and delegates at the Annual Meeting by ballot. Balloting shall continue until such time as a nominee has received a clear majority of ballots cast for each office and executive post. If a second ballot is required, the two standing highest among those nominated for each office or post shall be balloted upon and the others, if any, eliminated. The term of office for each elected office or post, shall be from July 1 through June 30, or until a successor is elected.

Section 6. A vacancy in any office, with the exception of President, due to actual or constructive resignation, shall be filled by appointment by the Executive Board. A vacancy in the office of President shall be filled by the Vice-President, or by the First Vice-President if two vice-presidents are elected.

Section 7. A vote of the majority of the voting members of the Executive Board shall be required to remove a member of the Executive Board from office prior to the expiration of the term of office for which that member has been elected or appointed. Any member of the Executive Board may also be removed from office for cause by a two-thirds majority vote of the members in good standing present at a General or Special Meeting provided that a written statement of the charges has been furnished to the Association members at least thirty (30) days prior to the meeting and the Executive Board member facing removal has been given the opportunity to appear at the General or Special Meeting to address the charges.

Section 8. All officers shall perform such duties as may be assigned from time to time by the Association membership. The President may present views of the Association at public fora or in written communications to elected or appointed officials and other third parties, provided that prior authorization for such action has been given by a majority vote of members present at a General Membership or Special Meeting or by the Executive Board of the Association. Members of the Executive Board, with the exception of the President, shall perform such other duties as may be assigned from time to time by the Executive Board.

Section 9. Duties of the President. The President shall be the chief executive official of the Association and shall take care that its By-laws and decisions are faithfully observed and executed. In addition, the President shall have the following specific duties:

- Preside over meetings of the Association;
- Chair the Executive Board of the Association;
- Appoint all officers, special committees and representatives of the Association whose appointment is not otherwise provided for in these By-laws;
- Provide for the performance of the duties of any office or position of the Association during the temporary absence or disability of the incumbent until the vacancy shall have been filled in the manner provided by these By-laws;
- Provide for the ringing of the bell in Constitution Garden on all Federal holidays;
- Sign checks if the Treasurer is not able to do so;
- Reserve rooms for Association events; and
- Provide articles for newsletters and approve final content.

The President shall be given notice of all committee meetings and has the right to be in attendance as an ex officio member at those meetings with the exception of the Nominating Committee, but is under no obligation to attend. The President's performance of duties shall be with the advice and consent of the Executive Board or the membership at a General Meeting whenever possible. At the expiration of the President's term of office, all moneys, books, documents, records, letters, and property of the organization shall be turned over to the elected successor.

Section 10. Duties of the Vice-Presidents. The First and Second Vice-Presidents shall assist the President in the administration of the affairs of the Association and shall undertake such duties as the President may assign them. In addition, they shall have the following specific duties:

- If the President is absent from either a meeting of the Association or a meeting of the Executive Committee, the First Vice-President shall preside. If the First Vice-President also should be absent, the Second Vice-President shall preside.
- In the event of the resignation, removal, disqualification, disability or death of the President, the First Vice-President shall assume the office of the President for the remainder of the term of office. Should the First Vice-President also be unable to assume or continue in the office of President, the Second Vice-President shall fill the vacancy of the First Vice-President and become the President for the remainder of the term.

Section 11. Duties of the Secretary—The Secretary shall be responsible for preparing and maintaining the records of all Association meetings, including minutes and agendas, giving notices on behalf of the Association as directed by the Executive Board, and keeping all records and documents of the Association with the exception of the financial books and records. The Secretary shall record the proceedings of the organization and of the Executive Committee, including minutes and agendas. The Secretary shall incorporate in the By-Laws all duly adopted amendments. The Secretary shall transmit promptly all resolutions and relevant matters to the respective officers in accordance with the references. The Secretary shall conduct normal correspondence of the organization except such correspondence that is the proper duty of the President. The Secretary shall send out proper notices as prescribed elsewhere in these Bylaws. The Secretary, at the expiration of the term of office, shall turn over to the successor all books, records, documents, letters, and property of the organization in the Secretary's possession.

Section 12. Duties of the Treasurer—The Treasurer shall maintain Association membership and financial records, solicit and collect membership dues, and record all receipts and payments of the Association. The payment of expenses of the Association shall be approved by the Executive Board and funds shall be disbursed by check drawn on the Association bank account(s) duly signed by the Treasurer, President, or Immediate Past President. The Immediate Past President shall have signature authority for Association bank account(s) only during the transition period between Executive Board administrations. The Treasurer shall provide an accounting of Association finances to the general membership at least at the Annual Meeting and shall be prepared to provide an accounting of Association finances to the Executive Board at each Executive Board Meeting. The Treasurer shall maintain a current and accurate roll of members, and their contact information, and shall make payments to the bank and post office as needed to maintain accounts or postal box.

Section 13. Duties of the NCAC Representative—The NCAC Representative shall represent neighborhood interests to the NCAC and to the County Board on hearings regarding Neighborhood Conservation projects. Neighborhood interests shall mean decisions already contained in the previously approved Association Neighborhood Conservation Plan, or positions adopted by a vote of the Association. The NCAC Representative shall also be responsible for assisting block captains in the process of identifying, scoping and qualifying projects for Neighborhood Conservation funding and for publicizing the schedule of activities relating to each funding round, so long as Association projects are in the funding queue.

ARTICLE VII

The Executive Board

Section 1. There shall be an Executive Board of the Association made up of the Officers of the Association, the Immediate Past President, and the delegates to the Arlington County Civic Federation elected by the members in good standing of the Association.

Section 2. The Executive Board shall exercise control over the financial affairs of the Association, plan Association events, generally supervise the work of the Association including committees, and report its activities to the membership.

Section 3. The Officers have voting privileges on matters before the Executive Board. The Immediate Past President and the delegates to the Arlington County Civic Federation serve on the Executive Board in an ex officio capacity. Three voting members shall constitute a quorum of the Executive Board.

Section 4. The Executive Board shall meet monthly as determined by the Executive Board during its summer sessions. The specific meeting dates will be determined by room availability, but shall be published in advance if they deviate from the established schedule or venue. These meetings shall be publicized and open to all Association members in good standing. Between membership meetings, the Executive Committee may meet as often as necessary. In cases of urgency where deferral of vote on an issue until a scheduled meeting will result in a missed opportunity, members of the Executive Board may make motions and vote on said motions by telephone or electronic mail, provided that all members of the Executive Board have received the motion in writing in advance of the vote, and the motion and vote are recorded in the minutes of the next meeting. The Executive Committee shall report all of its actions and decisions to the next General Membership meeting.

ARTICLE VIII Meetings

Section 1. The regular, General Meetings of the Association shall be scheduled for the fourth Tuesday or Wednesday of each month from September to June inclusive or as determined by the Executive Board during its summer sessions or as otherwise ordered by the Association.

Section 2. The General Meeting held in June shall be known as the Annual Meeting and shall be for the purpose of electing Association officers and Association delegates and alternates to the Arlington County Civic Federation, receiving reports of officers and committees, and for any other business that may arise.

Section 3. Special Meetings of the Association may be called by the President, members of the Executive Board, or upon written request of five members in good standing of the Association. Except in cases of emergency, at least five days' notice shall be given.

Section 4. The Order of Business at any General Meeting shall not include the reading of the minutes of the preceding meeting unless a motion is made to do so from the floor. The minutes may be reviewed at the meeting by any Association member. A copy shall be provided to any member upon request. The minutes shall become part of the Association's official records unless a motion to amend results in changes to the minutes.

ARTICLE IX Committees

Section 1. Committees, Standing or Special, may be appointed by the President, Executive Board, or the majority of the members in good standing at any Association General or Special Meeting as may from time to time be deemed necessary to carry on the work of the Association.

Section 2. The work of existing committees of the Association shall be made known to the members at General or Special Meetings or through the Association Newsletter.

Section 3. All committees shall file written reports with the Executive Board at least annually. All reports shall be available for review by any Association member.

ARTICLE X Amendment of the Bylaws

Section 1. Amendments to the Bylaws may be proposed by the Executive Committee or by petition signed by at least two members in good standing of the Association.

Section 2. The Bylaws may be amended by two-thirds of the members in good standing present at any General Meeting. No change shall be made unless written notice of the proposed nature of the amendment has been given to the members in good standing of the Association at least thirty days before the meeting at which the amendment is to be offered.

Section 3. Any amendment to the Association Bylaws takes affect immediately upon passage unless otherwise provided for in that amendment.

ARTICLE XI Arlington County Civic Federation

Section 1. The object of the Arlington County Civic Federation, as stated in the Federation

Bylaws, is “to promote the general welfare of Arlington County and vicinity in a non-sectarian, non-sectional and non-political manner. The Federation shall have the right to advocate legislation necessary to the welfare of Arlington County, and to oppose legislation not considered in the best interests of the county.”

Section 2. The Association members in good standing shall elect four Delegates and four Alternate Delegates, collectively referred to as “delegates” elsewhere in these Bylaws, to the Arlington County Civic Federation in the manner specified in Article VI.

Section 3. All delegates elected shall serve as ex officio members of the Executive Board. The delegates shall report periodically to the Executive Board or the Association membership on developments within the Arlington County Civic Federation.

Section 4. The delegates shall vote autonomously in the Federation or its committees unless specifically directed otherwise by the Executive Board or the Association membership.

[NOTE:

Header accidentally deleted in 2005 amendment]

Section 1. The rules contained in the current edition of Robert’s Rules of Order Newly Revised shall govern the Association in all cases to which they are applicable and in which they are not inconsistent with these Bylaws and any special rules of order the Association may adopt.

Adopted October 1994

Amended June 2000

Amended September 2005

Amended May 2013

BLUEMONT CIVIC ASSOCIATION
STANDING RULES

Standing Rule 1: Campaign Materials. No campaign materials including sample ballots, campaign literature, buttons or other promotional material may be distributed, posted, or displayed within the meeting room of the Annual Membership Meeting or where they are visible from the seating area while the Meeting is in session.

Standing Rule 2: Annual Meeting Order of Business. Candidate presentations and elections shall precede all other business of the Annual Meeting, except for the approval of the minutes of the preceding meeting.

Adopted May 2013